Yesterday arrived the Mail from France, and two from Confiantinsple, October 2.

Nieplief, the Crar's Refident, having received from the Grand Vizier the Paloparts with the meselfary Orders for the Reception of M. Romansoff, his Czarish Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, at his Entry into the Grand Signior's Territories, the Refident has now hired a House at Pera, belonging to a Christian of the Greek Church, for the Ule of the find Minister and his Retinue.

Pienna, Now 8. By Letters from Constantinuple dated the 10th of last Munita we have received an Accounty That about a Fortnight before a Course that he had taken the City of Hamedan by Storm, and you would not expiculate. It is a large rich City the Head of a Province, and not above eight Days Journey, from Hipalians. Upon this News the Fort ordered published.

There's, Nove the Letters from Genos advise, that M. George Hooling has been from Genos advise, that M. George Hooling his frammick Majesty's Constitut Genos shed at the Baths of Recco in that Neighbourshood, of a Droofly, the 2th of this Month.

Howboarg, Nov. 24. On Wednesday last a very remarkable Thing stappened here to The Magistrates intimated, at Eight a-Clock in the Morning, by fix Notaries, assisted with 8 Drayoons and 24 Centimels, to the Inhabitants of the District of the Danish Hotels called the Schawenburg, and Markle Lattle County of the County of Callenberg, High Railis of the Gounty, of Annean Callenberg, High Railis of the Gounty, of Annean bourg, have for some time past prefund to mercial an independent Jurisdiction within the District of the Inhabitant of the I Priest of the Oratory, who is appointed to preach during the Advent before the King, to be at Verbillet on Advent Sunday, which falls on the 3d of next Month. The King continues to take, every Day the Diversion of Hunting. On the 15th, one of the King's Huntimen on Horseback pursued a Sing till he fell, and then alighted in order to hamstring him; but the Stag had still Strength anough to rife, and to thike one of his Antlers between the two Bones of his Leg 3 and had not the Huntiman retired, tho' with much Difficulty, behind a Tree, the Animal would have certainly ripped up his Belly.

Forta him, ag. The lastints Queen set out from Fontainblum on the 2th in the Evening at Verfailles. The King will set out on Thursday next to go and he at the Castle of Petithurg, which belongs to the Duke d'Austin, where his Majesty will stay till the Saturday following, and then will go and he at Verfailles. It is allured that the Prince of Monsco will Merry a young Genoese Lady of the House of Doria.

You are defired to meet a great Number of Worthy ALDERMEN, Merchauts, and other Emigent Cirzens, this Morning at Nine a Clock, at Merchant-Taylors Hall in Threadneedle-firees, in order to go and Poll for Sir R.C. Alderman, and Turkey Merchant.

To be your Representative in Parliament, in the Room of Prior Godfry, Esq. Doctated.

NB. There will be other Meetings in divers Parts of the City, and Places adjacent, to support the Election of the worthy GENTLEMAN, who has but Right open I wenty Six ALDERMEN, that any way oppose hum.

London, Nov. 24, 1734.

See Williams infifted upon the Poll to continue till Four a Clock, but that being a dark Hour at this Time to the Year, the Sheriffs declared that they would flut up the Poll at Three a Clock in the Afternoon.

Humphry Parforn, Efq; demanded the Poll for Mr. Good-fellows; upon which the Liverymen call'd out for the Num-bers of the Foll which he took when Sheriff, and which he had not yet comply'd with Lendon, Nov. 21, 1724.

At the Worthy CITIZENS are already tentible, that publick Reflections were first becam in Print by Mr. Goodfellow, or his Friends, so it is fit that Mr. Goodfellow, or his Friends, so it is fit that Mr. Goodfellow, or his Friends, so it is fit that Mr. Goodfellow should know, that such publick Reflections will always meet with a fuitable Answer.

The Substance of what he Yesterday offered in Print, is an Apology for his Ingratitude to those who served his Brother; by infinuating, that he returns the good Office done him on that Occasion, by the Tender of his Service in PARLIAMENT; but one would think, if he meant a Graneful Returns it should have been by offering his Service to his Brother's Friends, and not by opposing them, and it may be truly faid, that this is the first Time, when a Candidate praying the Honour of Representing this CITY, should call it a Servitude; and sancy it to be an Obligation on the CITIZENS, sespecially on shose who appear for Sie RICHARD HOPKINS against him.

It is improper now to ask Mr. Goodfellow, How long he was weighing the Importance of the paintuit. This he ed at the Mr. Goodfellow; How long he was weighing the Importance of the paintuit. This he ed at the Mr. Goodfellow, How long he was weighing the lamporance of the paintuit. This he ed at the Mr. Goodfellow, How long he was weighing the learners are some Office in that CITY for which he seems now to concerned the control of the part of the paintuit.

London, Nov. 24, 1724.

If the Officious Remarker on the N.B. in the Bills for Sir RICHARD HOPKINS, thould enquire of any one of common Senie, he il be intormed, that the Sublance thereof, fo far as it relates to Companies, is an Appeal to the Citizens, if greater Care ought, not to be taken of their Interests in the SOUTH-SEA Company, than that of the Russia Company; Sir RICHARD HOPKINS belongs to the Tarkey Company, as well as Mr. Goodfelies to that of the Russia, and these (it's hoped) are consistent Parallels; as also, that a Company having great Properties, has as good a Piscence to make an interest, as other Inferior Companies, &c.

good's Precence to make an Interest, as other Inferior Companies, &c.

Sir Richard Hopkins does not need any to skreen him; but the Publick Conduct of fome has been tuch, that it any of them had ventured to appear as a Candidate, as Skreen would have been able to have covered them.

N. B. It cannot be improper to take Notice, that Sir RICHARD HOPKINS was one of the Muschans who opposed Mr. Goodfellous's Accempt to bring in falls by Way of Rullia, to the Deliruction of the Tayloy Trade here, and only to the ridvantage of the Albscopies.
